

Free the Giant within

Northeast Cluster

Unitarian Universalist Congregations

Saturday, March 21, 2015

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

First Unitarian Church of Orlando

1901 E. Robinson, Orlando, FL

$15.00 includes lunch

9:00—12 noon

In the morning session Richard “Bud” Murphy will lead those gathered in exercises that bring clarity to motivation and release the effective power to make a difference.

Breakout sessions for action planning and networking will follow lunch.

1:00 to 2:30 PM Select your area of interest

Environmental Justice

Irene and Bob Keim, UU Ministry for Earth and UUSC leaders, share how to join the exciting Commit2Respond campaign to engage in climate justice actions. Learn how to grow hope and effective action by plugging into this growing network of concerned UUs, partner organizations, and useful, inspiring resources to help us manifest our UU values towards building sustainable communities.

A Message That Delivers

Lois Cole, 1U ministerial intern, shares ways you can create a compelling social justice message for a Sunday sermon and beyond. We will look at how to get the most mileage out of a message, whether it be through a blog, Facebook, Twitter, group discussion, meeting or Sunday service. Bring your message ideas and be prepared to start messaging.

First Steps

Nancy Nordyke-Shelley will discuss early steps toward identifying issues and the selection of a first project. Networking to build your team will be addressed. Mass incarceration, racism and income inequality will start this how-to session.

Register and Pay on line Here

Other ways to register:

Contact: Martha Harnit Hartgering

by calling: 352-242-2437 or

Emailing: posturenurse@yahoo.com

Sponsored by UU Justice Florida